

Code of Conduct

As members of the CRC TRR 341 we:

- refute ideology of hatred.
- respect different opinions.
- do not push others down.
- pay attention to our language and expression to avoid hurting each other.
- avoid using xenonyms and negative characterizations when speaking about others.
- take desired self-descriptions and pronouns into account.
- avoid generalizations, stigmatization and reproducing stereotypes.
- take people who have experienced discrimination or racism seriously.
- avoid victim blaming.
- react (speak up, communicate) when witnessing discriminatory behavior.
- ensure that we all feel respected and worthy.
